III. SUBJECT INDEX:

Equal Opportunity/Nondiscrimination

IV. BACKGROUND:

On August 7, 1998, the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA) was signed into law, which supercedes JTPA. Section 188, of WIA contains the statute's equal opportunity and nondiscrimination provisions.

29 CFR Part 37, the federal regulations, dated November 12, 1999, implements the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity provisions of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 and require that each state establish and adhere to a Methods of Administration (MOA) for their state programs.

An MOA is a document, developed by the Department of Employment Security, that describes the actions an individual state will take to ensure that its WIA Title I-financially assisted programs, activities, and recipients are complying, and will continue to comply, with the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity of WIA and its implementing regulations.

The MOA is to be organized in the nine element requirements, with both a narrative and a documentation section for each element.

V. POLICY:

Element 4 of the MOA addresses Universal access. The narrative portion of this element should address the following information:

Describe how local level recipients, one-stops, and other service providers are making efforts (including outreach) to broaden the composition of the pool of those considered for participation in their programs and activities to include members of both sexes, the race/ethnic groups specified in guidelines issued by the Office of Management and Budget, various age groups, and individuals with disabilities.

The documentation of element 4 should include the following information:

- a) Copies of targeting, outreach, and recruitment plans.
- b) Criteria for determining priority of service.
- c) Copies of plans for one-stops to expand the pool of applicants, registrants, and participants by race/ethnicity, sex, disability status, and age.
- d) Samples of brochures, posters, public service announcements, computer screens, and other publicity materials.

VI. ACTION REQUIRED:

This policy letter should be distributed to appropriate EO staff to prepare the narrative and documentation required under policy. This information is to be submitted, paper copy only-please no faxes, by close of business on Friday, July 13, 2001 to the following address:
